

WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

Investment advisers are required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. We are bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law.

Federal law gives the customer the right to limit some but not all sharing of personal information. It also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

Victory Wealth Management, LLC (“Victory” or “We”), respects your privacy. This policy outlines the types of information that we may collect from you, or that you may provide when you visit our website at www.victorywealthmanagement.com, or services offered through third-party affiliates (“Website”), as well as our practices for collection, storage, disclosure, and use of that information.

Please read this policy thoroughly, so you can understand how we use and manage your information. We may revise this policy at any time at our sole discretion, and changes made to this policy are effective immediately upon publication.

By using our Website, you agree to be bound by and abide by the policy and to check this page on a regular basis in order to keep yourself aware of any changes or adjustments. If you do not agree to this policy, you must not access, visit, or otherwise use our Website.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Victory may collect several types of nonpublic personal information from Website users, including but not limited to:

- Personal identification (including name, email address, mailing address, etc.)
- Information pertinent to an active Wealth Management Agreement (asset disclosures, income, tax return information, etc.)
- Technological information (equipment used to access our Website, usage statistics, IP address, cookies, etc.)
- Third-party information (from custodians, etc.)

You may choose to provide Victory with information either through actions like form submissions or transactions, or contacting us digitally. Information you provide may include:

- Your contact information and copies of your correspondence if you contact us
- Details as a result of transactions completed through the Website
- Survey responses
- Form submission data

Victory may also use automatic data collection technologies that may provide us information about your demographics, website usage patterns, operating system, and other data. We may use these technologies to collect information about your browsing activities over time. This information may be used to enhance your website experience or improve our website.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

The information collected or provided to Victory via our Website may be used in order to:

- Provide you with information you request or that may be helpful to you
- Notify you about your account(s)
- Execute any contracts entered into between you and Victory, including for transactions and billing
- Fulfill any obligations required of Victory as a result of receiving your information
- Correspond with you as requested or required

We may also use your information in additional ways, describing those to you upon receipt of your information, as well as in any other circumstance for which you provide consent.

DISCLOSING YOUR INFORMATION

Victory may disclose your information, whether identifying or non-identifying, in certain circumstances, including but not limited to:

- To market or offer our products and services to you, including joint marketing with other financial companies and affiliates
- To third-party service providers or contractors we currently partner with to provide services
- To complete requested or required actions

We may also disclose your information in additional ways, describing those to you upon receipt of your information, as well as in any other circumstance for which you provide consent.

ONLINE DATA SECURITY

Information and data transmitted via the Internet can never be completely secure. While we make every effort to try to protect your information, we cannot guarantee its security. Any transmission of information using our Website is at your own personal risk.

WEBSITE USE BY MINORS

This website is not intended for minors under the age of 18, and minors under 18 may not provide us with personal information or use our Website. We do not knowingly collect information from minors under 18. Should we determine we have received information from a minor under the age of 18, we will remove that information from our databases to the best of our ability.

YOUR RIGHTS TO PRIVACY

To request access to your personal information, to provide corrections to your personal information, or to request deletion of your personal information, please send an email to info@victorywealthmanagement.com. Requests for changes will be subject to review and may not be accommodated if the change would violate any law or legal requirement.

If you are a California resident, state law may provide you with additional rights regarding your privacy and use of your personal information. Please send an email to info@victorywealthmanagement.com if you have questions or requests.
